"Fancy Like" Applebee's wins the Grand Effie at the 2022 US Effie Awards

McDonald's named Most Effective Marketer, IPG is the Most Effective Holding Company, and DDB Worldwide is the Most Effective Agency Network

NEW YORK, June 14, 2022 -- Restaurant chain Applebee's has won the Grand Effie at the 2022 Effie Awards US Gala for its "Fancy Like" Applebee's campaign.

The campaign from Applebee's and Grey New York, with contributing agencies Initiative Media, Current Global, Townhouse, and Barkley, saw Applebee's partner with country star Walker Hayes and his hit 'Fancy Like', that talks about date night at the restaurant, to create a culture-shifting viral and sales sensation. With the launch of the "Fancy Like" Applebee's campaign, accompanied by a "Fancy Like" meal, Applebee's outpaced sales of competitors by 9.3% while simultaneously making "Fancy Like Applebee's" the feel-good catchphrase of summer 2021.

"The magic of "Fancy Like" Applebee's is in the details. Lots of brands set out to create virality and cultural relevancy, but few achieve it. In our minute-by-minute world, the Applebee's team was able to both seize a moment and give it staying power. They did that by mobilizing their most important and most influential brand assets – their servers, chefs, suppliers, communities, and of course, their customers," said Kellyn Smith Kenny, EVP, Chief Marketing & Growth Officer at AT&T and 2022 Effie US Grand judge.

Fellow judge Kate Charles, CSO and Managing Partner at OBERLAND, said: "It was clear that the team was following the lead of culture versus trying to create it, which made it feel organic and authentic. “Fancy Like” Applebee’s also shows that a great idea can come from anywhere — if you’re ready. The only way to be that agile is with deep trust and partnership across all parties, and that teamwork is felt throughout this campaign - between the brand, the agency, Applebee’s employees and their customers.”

“This campaign is proof that when people are inspired, a great idea can become contagious and extremely effective. This work is buzzy, lovable, and joyful - everything the world needs a little more of,” Kenny adds. “Congratulations to everyone involved.”
